

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Many children with severe impairments cannot eat, walk, dress or talk on their own. They often have both mental and physical impairments and need round-the-clock care. Families with children with severe disabilities have many expenses other families do not.

Uses for the subsidy program might be the purchase of special equipment, special diets, large paper diapers, unique transportation costs, in-home specialized care, respite care, family counseling, support groups, general household expenses, family recreation and home remodeling to provide for the special needs of the child.

This list is not all-inclusive. A unique feature of the subsidy is that the family decides its use to suit their needs.

PAYMENTS

Payments are just over $200 per month. They are the same for all families and are issued near the end of each month.

Parents whose child is presently placed out of their home may contact their CMHSP to discuss possibilities for being reunited. The subsidy program allows parents a one-time advance payment equal to a two-month amount. This payment helps the family prepare for the child's homecoming. Parents are eligible for this one-time payment if the child's placement outside the home has been more than one year and the family has received help from this program in the past.

ADMINISTRATION

The Michigan Legislature passed the Family Support Subsidy Act in 1983. The Department of Community Health and the CMHSPs administer and implement the act. Together, they are supporting families to keep their children at home.

CMHSPs can provide additional information on the Family Support Subsidy Program. Questions or requests for applications should be directed to your local CMHSP.

Family Support Subsidy Program

Michigan has a program to help families who care for their children with severe disabilities at home. The Family Support Subsidy Program can pay for special expenses the family has while caring for their child with severe disabilities. This financial support may help prevent or delay placements outside the home. In other cases, the program may provide the funds necessary to allow children to return from placements outside the home.

Supporting families of children with severe disabilities in this way allows families to stay together. It gives them flexibility in purchasing special services and saves money for the taxpayer by avoiding or reducing the need for more costly placements outside the home.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Families may be eligible for this program if they have a child under age 18 who has been recommended by a local or intermediate school district's multidisciplinary evaluation team with an eligibility category of:

- cognitive impairment (CI) (formerly severely mentally impaired)
- severe multiple impairment (SXI) or
- autism

Children with an eligibility category of CI may be eligible if their development is in the severe range of functioning as determined by the local or intermediate school district.

Children with autism must be receiving special education services in a program designed for students with autism or in a program designed for students with severe cognitive impairment or severe multiple impairments.

In cases in which the child is not receiving special education services or if it is not known if the child is receiving special education services, parents may contact the director of special education at the local or intermediate school district. They can also call Early On/Project Find at 1-800-252-0052.

Families can be headed by birth parents, adoptive parents, or legal guardians. Foster parents who are also legal guardians are not eligible.

Under the law, the taxable income for the family may not exceed $60,000. In addition, the family cannot receive reimbursement from the Medical Subsidy Program for Adoptive Children if they choose to apply for the Family Support Subsidy.
